Half Sick Half Well

Many persons have their good day and their bad day. Others are about half sick all the time. They have headache, backache, and are restless and nervous. Food does not taste good, and the digestion is poor; the skin is dry and scaly and disfigured with pimples or eruptions; sleep brings no rest and work is a burden.

What is the cause of all this? Impure blood. And the remedy?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

It clears out the channels through which poisons are carried from the body. When all impurities are removed from the blood nature takes right hold and completes the cure.

If there is constipation, take Ayer's Pills. They awaken the drowsy action of the liver; they cure biliousness.

Deaths and Funerals.
Thomas, a son of Winifred and the late James Cosgrove, died at the family residence, 430 West Centre street, at 10:30 o'clock this morning. His death was caused from appendicitis and entered a short illness of ten days. Deceased was 21 years of age and a member of the Knights of Annunciation. He is survived by his mother, and five brothers, Patrick H., Joseph and Charles, of town; John, of New York; and William, a private in the 2nd U. S. Infantry now stationed in Cuba.

The funeral of William J. O'Brien took place this morning. High mass was celebrated in the Annunciation church. The remains, in charge of Undertaker J. J. Franey, were taken to Pottsville for burial. The funeral of Annie, daughter of James Sweeney, will take place from the family residence in Lost Creek at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. Services will be held in St. Mary Magdalene's church at that place. Interment will be made in the Annunciation cemetery.

The funeral of Thomas Campbell, who died at Ashland yesterday, and was buried in this column, will take place Friday morning. Services will be held in St. Joseph's church at 10:30 o'clock, and the funeral cortege will leave on the 12:37 P. M. train for New Philadelphia, where interment will be made.

Maud, daughter of D. Y. Gilliam, of Schuylkill Haven, died on Sunday, aged 20 years, after a short illness. Funeral tomorrow morning.

Mrs. Margaret Sullivan, a former resident of Ashland, died at her home in Philadelphia on Sunday, from typhoid fever. She was 51 years old, and leaves a husband and seven children.

William Krause, of Tanques, died yesterday morning. His death occurred on the 37th anniversary of his birth.

A Breaker Disabled.
The breaker of the Hammond colliery was thrown into this morning by an accident to the machinery. A belt jumped from a pulley and became entangled in the machinery, resulting in the cylinder head of the engine following into and other damage. WM. PENN ELOPEMENT.

A Married Woman Departs With a Married Man of That Place.

For almost a week past the quiet little hamlet of Wm. Penn has been stirred to its foundations over the sudden disappearance of a man and woman who have cast the marriage vows to the winds, defied the laws of morality, humanity and decency and eloped.

Although preceding circumstances were such that many of the Wm. Penn folks were not surprised when the elixir came, yet there were many others who hoped for the best. Developments and circumstances, however, sustain the belief in the worst. A reporter visited Wm. Penn yesterday and found those most directly interested resigned to the worst aspect of the situation, and it may now be announced that Wm. Penn has a fledgling elopement as a part of its history.

The guilty couple are Housley Birkett, and Mrs. Mary Dunlap. Birkett is a man 37 years old and leaves behind a wife and three children. The oldest child is 12 years and the youngest 2 years. The family is left with negligible funds and no source of revenue, save that paid as board by the brother of the rascally husband. Mrs. Dunlap, who is about 32 years old, leaves behind a husband, totally blind, and five children ranging from 3 to 10 years old. The husband owns a double block, one of which he occupies with his family, and has a remaining bank account of about $400. He says his wife took with her about $1,000. Reports have gone out that the stolen money amounted to about $1,400, but the husband says about $1,000 will cover it.

The case is a peculiar one. There are acquaintances of the family who strongly condemn Mrs. Dunlap for her infidelity. There are others who say that all that was acquired by the family came principally through her hard toil. The property referred to was acquired after the husband became blind through a mine accident. "She was always a hard working woman," remarked one of the interviewed yesterday. Others, including the blind husband, said it was no surprise that the couple went away. Birkett was continually after Mrs. Dunlap.

The elopement took place last Wednesday. Mrs. Dunlap left home about 10 o'clock in the morning, telling her husband that she was coming to this town to purchase dry goods for the family. She boarded a car at the turn-out opposite the Wm. Penn school building. Shortly after Birkett was seen walking along the highway towards Shenandoah. Yesterday a teamster gave the information that on the same day he saw the couple together in town.

Speaking yesterday of the departure of the couple Mrs. Birkett said: "Neighbors had told me lots, but for some time I refused to believe the worst. Matt Dunlap was blind, and he and my husband were warm and friendly. My husband worked with Dunlap in the Wm. Penn mines when Dunlap lost his sight about thirteen years ago, through a blast. I knew my husband spent nearly all his spare time at Dunlap's house, but, until a few months ago, I thought he was there to keep company for Dunlap. They used to take walks on the mountain together. During the last few months my eyes were opened, but I tried to persuade my man, and urge him to settle down and get a home for us. Several times we had left Wm. Penn and sought life in other places—the soft coal regions and other places—but my persuasion had no effect. On the day they disappeared he walked down to the electric railway track and looked up towards Dunlap's. I shouted to him 'That's right, stand where your best girl will see you,' but I had no idea then of what was going to happen. Mrs. Dunlap left home a few weeks before my persuasion had no effect.
